

Spreading God's Word... One Purse at a Time!

SEPTEMBER 2006

When God Calls...will you pick up?

Oh boy, I have to admit that when God calls, sometimes I don't want to answer the phone.

His ways of doing things are so completely different than we can ever imagine and His timing, of course, is just that—His timing. Does it line up with our plans? Usually not. Is it better than our plans? Of course. Why do we make things so difficult sometimes then, when all we really need to do is pick up that “phone” and listen to what God is saying?

He knew us before the beginning of time and Jeremiah 29:11 says that He has a plan for us. It's for good and not for evil. But if you are like me, we have a plan for our own lives and we hope that God will line up with what we are orchestrating. Well let me just tell you, because experience has now gotten the best of me, God really does have everything under control. He really doesn't need our help, just our cooperation. His plan for our lives is so much more fruitful and fulfilling than anything we could ever put together for ourselves.

Here at Living Water Creations, we have just gone through a 9 month “pregnancy” if you will, and have finally given birth to a vision that God Himself gave to us. We heard His phone message saying, “Hey girls, I have something special for you to do. If you choose to accept it, I will take you places. Up the mountain and down through the valleys you will go, but if you listen to me and follow my path I will use you for My kingdom purposes and use you to spread My Word. If you would like to do this, please give Me a call back. I'll be waiting. Love, God”.

Well, needless to say, we called Him back and said, “Yes and amen Lord, we'll do it!” The phrase “God does not call the qualified, He qualifies the called” best describes our situation. With the degrees that we both hold, we are not qualified, but through His grace and guidance, we are now officially open for business!

Enjoy your time here with us!

Be a part of our next line of handbags!

Because we are focused on meeting the needs of women and spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ, we have decided to let you, our friends and customers, help us choose our next line of handbags. As we plan for our Spring Collection, we will offer you the opportunity to vote on your favorite bags. After we tally the votes, the winning bags will become the next line of Living Water Creations Handbags. Oh what fun to be a part of a company that let's you help decide the next line of products. Be looking for later newsletters for more information.

Introducing the Living Water Creations Handbag Lines

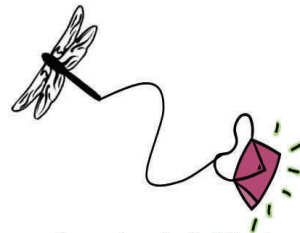

Living Water Creations will feature five different collections of handbags and one diaper bag line. The handbag lines are named after women of the bible—Sarah, Rahab, Tamar, Leah and Abigail. All wonderful women of the bible each with her own unique story. One line, Mary, Mother of Jesus, will be a line exclusively for diaper bags.

Each line will eventually consist of handbags, cosmetic bags and totes and each line will have its own scriptural reference that will be featured on the bags. The five different lines will appeal to women that are in different stages of their life's journey.

Bible cards about the featured women are part of the package when you order a bag from Living Water Creations. Our hope is that these handbags will initiate a discussion of your faith with others. By giving you more information about the featured scripture on your handbag, we hope that it will be easier for you to start a conversation or to answer a question about your handbag.
