Sarah - She Believed God!

Sarah, the wife of Abraham and mother of Isaac, was a beautiful woman filled with faith. She followed her husband to wherever God led him and displayed a love for Abraham that was unconditional and tenacious.

Sarah is remembered for her beauty, brilliance, creativity and her unequivocal devotion toward her husband Abraham. There is more space devoted to Sarah than to any other woman of the Bible.

God promised Sarah that she would be a mother of many nations but in the natural, she was unable to have children. God fulfilled His promise to her when at the age of 90 she became pregnant with Isaac.

You can read Sarah's story in Genesis Chapters 12 through 23. We hope that when reading Sarah's story, you will see what an incredible God we serve.

You too can believe God will fulfill your needs and His promises to you. "And whatever things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive." Matthew 21:22

How Do I Know What God Wants Me To Do With My Life?

Many of us find ourselves asking, "What am I supposed to do when I grow up?" This question seems to be triggered at different stages in our lives and it has been my observation that more and more adults are asking this question.

Maybe you have set aside some of your passions in order to raise a family. Priorities change throughout our lives and more times than not, setting aside our own dreams is a must in order to secure the well being of our family.

If you find yourself asking what God wants you to do with your life, you are not alone. The question seems to imply that there is only one path, one real answer, to this question.

I challenge you, as you ask this question, to think of it not as a vocational question, but as an occupational question. Our vocation, whether it be a plumber, banker, business woman, etc., is how we respond to the Spirit's prodding. It's the vehicle we use to live out our everyday life. Our occupation is how we go about using that vehicle. It's the 'how' we go about living out our life.

Each of us has our own unique gifts and destiny that God has planned especially for us. He knew you before you were formed in your mother's womb and wants nothing more than for you to live a life that will fulfill the wonderful destiny that He hand picked just for you!

So start asking yourself, "How?" No matter what vehicle you are using right now, it's the everyday 'how' that makes the difference.

Our new handbags are almost ready to be shipped. We are looking forward to receiving them in November.

Blessings,
